OBITUARY

Bonnie Lee Brice was born to O.C. and Jessie Vee Johnson in Lewisville, Arkansas on Sept 29, 1935, which begin an 80 year journey of love, kindness, caring and the devotion to family and worship.

As a young child, Bonnie and her family moved to Richmond, California, where she was raised by John and Jessie Vee Abercrombie. After completing her education and graduating from Richmond High School, Bonnie married Grady Brice and they became the parents of six children.

Bonnie was baptized as one of Jehovah Witnesses in 1950. She left a rich spiritual heritage for her family. She devoted her time and energy to putting Kingdom interests first, serving in the congregation as a regular pioneer for over 40 years. Bonnie studied the Bible with many people in the community and was known for spreading Bible Truths and the Hope for the Future of Living in Paradise on Earth. Her care and concern for the congregation could be seen by her consistently visiting the sick and elderly, offering assistance and encouragement.

Bonnie is fondly remembered for her joy, laughter and sociable personality. She enjoyed spending time with her children, grandchildren, family and friends.

Bonnie is preceded in death by her parents; husband; eldest son Robbin Brice; and 2 grandsons, Damon Brice and Chad Brice, Jr. She is survived by her children Chad Brice (wife Glenda), Rene' Brice, Graylin Brice (wife Sunday), Cheryl Brice and Derrick Brice (wife Marsha); her brother Henry Daniels of New York; her 16 grandchildren: Derrick, Nikko, Nicole, Kiatra, Kimetra, Avilyn, Jerimiah, Charnikka, Quan, Daeus, Justin, Kristin, Devin, Donnavan, Damon and Darren. Eight great-grandchildren, and a host of other family and friends.

HE WILL CALL
Song 111

Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand

Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)
